

5 April

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF CONSCIENCE

“There is a higher court than courts of justice, and that is the court of conscience. It supersedes all other courts.”

— Mahatma Gandhi —

WHY DO WE MARK THIS DAY?

In 2019, the UN declared April 5 to be the International Day of Conscience (IDC) and adopted the resolution A/RES/73/329 that promotes building a culture of peace with love and conscience as per the local or regional culture or customs. International Day of Conscience encourages every human being to participate in emphasizing the celebration of diversity and inclusiveness.

Promoting a Culture of Peace with Love and Conscience lies at the heart of the establishment of the United Nations and UNESCO.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

- ✓ Why might the UN focus on conscience as a path to peace?

MEET TODAY'S GLOBAL CITIZEN

MAHATMA GANDHI

Indian Lawyer, Ethicist, Activist

Gandhi's acts of civil disobedience made him determined to fight the "deep disease of color prejudice."

Gandhi was the primary leader of India's independence movement and also the architect of a form of non-violent civil disobedience that would influence the world.
